

Commerce Association

2015-16 Report

Every Subject Association is formed in a college with student centred objectives.

An association is basically for the students, of the students and by the students. Commerce Association has a number of objectives which are basically intended for the overall development of students and enrichment of campus life. The activities are planned and executed in such a manner so that a student acquires necessary skills and knowledge from this training ground, which he/she can successfully put to use outside too. As such, the Commerce Association is far from being just celebrations and cultural programmes alone. Also it is not centred just on academic activities. Rather a judicious mix of various activities which instill skills and develop a student in an overall fashion- this is the essence of Commerce Association. Thus the following major objectives are set and activities are planned accordingly:

The specific and general objectives of the Commerce Association are enlisted:

- To bring about an overall development in the outlook of its members by imparting the necessary skills.
- To channelize the vision and minds of students towards lucrative career opportunities.
- To bring out the talents of the members in the fields of arts and sports.
- To develop a harmonious relationship with the fellow students of the other colleges by way of participating in the activities and competitions held on other campuses.
- To get an idea on event management by way of conducting inter-class, inter-group, Inter-departmental, inter-collegiate programmes.
- To put the concept of 'esprit de-corps' into practice.

MOTTO

The motto of the association is drawn from the maxim put forward by famous industrialist Henry Ford. The motto is:

*“Coming together is beginning,
Keeping together is progress &
Working together is success.”*
